Under Prime Minister's 15 Points Programme, to improve the socio-economic conditions of minority communities special emphasis is laid for providing education to children of minority communities. Accordingly, pre-matric scholarship scheme is implemented so that parents are encouraged to send their children to schools and their financial burden is reduced. Similarly, post-matric scholarship is to provide financial assistance to meritorious students belonging to minority communities offers them level playing in this competitive age and offers them opportunities for respectable employment. Merit-Cum-Means scholarship enables students form minority communities to pursue professional and technical courses and empowers them through education.
