SECTION-1

An audio will be played. You will have to answer the questions while listening to the audio.

For questions 1-5 complete the description of the Grandmother below.

Write ONE WORD ONLY for each answer.

My grandmother, like everybody's grandmother, was an old woman. She had always been short, fat and 1.....bent. People said that she had once been young and pretty and even had a husband. But that was hard to believe. My grandfather's portrait hung above the mantelpiece in the drawing-room. He wore a big 2..... and loose-fitting clothes. His long, white beard covered the best part of his chest and he looked at least a hundred years old. Her face was a crisscross of wrinkles running from everywhere to everywhere. She was old enough. She could not have grown older. She was always 3..... She hobbled about the house in spotless white with one hand resting on her waist to balance her stoop and the other telling the beads of her rosary. Her silver locks were scattered untidily over her pale, puckered 4.....and her lips constantly moved in an inaudible prayer. She was like the winter landscape in the mountains, and expanse of pure white serenity breathing peace and contentment. She often told us of the games she used to play as a child. That seemed quite absurd and undignified on her part and we treated it like the 5..... of the Prophets she used to tell us.
