Subject: Action to be taken against Government employees convicted on a criminal charge and eligibility of undertrial / convicted Persons for appointment in the Government

Best Regards,
 Shailja Gaur,
 Superintendent,
 Personnel Policy - 2,
 Department of Personnel,
 Government of Punjab.

No. 03/02/2020-2PP2/ 90
GOVERNMENT OF PUNJAB
DEPARTMENT OF PERSONNEL
(PERSONNEL POLICY-2 BRANCH)

Dated, Chandigarh: 24-01-2021

To

All the Heads of Departments,
Registrar, Punjab and Haryana High Court,
All Commissioners of Divisions,
All Deputy Commissioners, and
All Sub divisional Magistrates in the State of Punjab.

Subject: Action to be taken against Government employees convicted on a criminal charge and eligibility of under trial/convicted persons for appointment in the Government.

1. This is in supersession to instructions of Department of Personnel, Government of Punjab issued vide No. 03/02/2020-2PP2/333 dated 06.09.2022, directing the Departments to take action against the employees convicted on a criminal charge under the service rules. Department of Personnel has, from time to time issued instructions reiterating the action to be taken against Government employees who are convicted on a criminal charge. Action against convicted employees is taken at various levels eg. District level, Directorate level, Government level etc, and therefore, in order to ensure the strict compliance of Government instructions issued from time to time, there is a need to have uniformity of decision. There is also a need to clarify the nature of offence, conviction in respect of which will require action against the employee. Accordingly, detailed instructions are hereby issued on this subject.

2. It has been clarified in the circular dated 09.07.2020 that an appeal against an order or even a stay of the sentence will have no effect unless the conviction itself is stayed. It has further been emphasized that in cases of serious charges of misconduct, particularly involving moral turpitude, the Department should immediately act upon the judgment of Court and take action against the Government servant under the relevant Punishment and Appeal Rules. It has further been clarified that there is no bar on taking simultaneous criminal action and initiation of departmental proceedings against the Government employee.

Earlier Department of Personnel, Government of Punjab vide its letter No. 3/23/1998-1PP2/10394 dated 05.08.1998 circulated an order in compliance with decision of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Civil Appeal No. 2992/1995 titled as The Deputy Director of Collegiate Education vs. S. Nagoor Meera 1995 AIR 1364 wherein it was held that employees convicted of a serious charge are not to be retained in service. It was further held that mere suspension of sentence will be of no use to the employees, unless the conviction itself was stayed or set aside. It would be relevant to examine the conduct of the Government servant which has led to his conviction on a criminal charge. If the employee is held guilty and convicted of a serious charge, then such an employee should not be retained in service.

3. The instructions and service rules contemplate that employees convicted of serious offences particularly offences involving moral turpitude are not to be retained in service and such employees are either to be dismissed or removed from service. The term 'moral turpitude' has not been defined in the rules or anywhere else and it may convey different meaning in different contexts, but it has generally been taken to mean a conduct contrary to justice, honesty, modesty or good morals. As a general rule, a crime will be considered as involving moral turpitude if it involves an act of baseness, vileness, or depravity when judged in the light of the social duties which a of an offense involves moral turpitude, then an attempt to commit the offence, or a conspiracy to commit the offense, will likewise involve moral turpitude.

Moral turpitude is an expression which is used in legal as also societal parlance to describe conduct which is inherently base, vile, depraved or having any connection showing depravity.

This expression has been more elaborately explained in Baleshwar Singh vs. District Magistrate and Collector Banaras, AIR 1959 All. 71 where it was observed as follows:

"The expression 'moral turpitude' is not defined anywhere. But it means anything done contrary to justice, honesty, modesty or good morals. It implies depravity and wickedness of character or disposition of the person charged with the particular conduct. Every false statement made by a person may not be moral turpitude, but it would be so if it discloses vileness or depravity in the doing of any private and social duty which a person owes to his fellowmen or to the society in general. If therefore the individual charged with a certain conduct owes a duty, either to another individual or to the society in general, to act in a specific manner or not to so act and he still acts contrary to it and does so knowingly, his conduct must be held to be due to vileness and depravity. It will be contrary to accept customary rule and duty between man and man"

(3A). A list of offences involving moral turpitude has been drawn up in consultation with the Directorate of Prosecution and Litigation, a copy of which is enclosed herewith (Annexure-1). This list, however, is not exhaustive and there might be offences which are not included in the Annexure-1 but which, in certain situations and circumstances, may involve moral turpitude.

4. Action against serving State Government employees is to be taken under Punjab Civil Services (Punishment and Appeal) Rules, 1970 or Punjab Police Rules, 1934 or other relevant Rules, while action against All India Services officers will be taken under All India Service (Discipline and Appeal) Rules 1969. As regards retired employees, the Punjab Civil Services Rules (Vol. II, Chapter II) and All India Service (Death-cum-Retirement Benefits) Rules, 1958 will be relevant. The appointing authorities may go through the instructions and rules carefully and taken action as under:-

- (a) Persons convicted of offences involving moral turpitude will not be eligible for appointment under the Government.
- (b) The employees convicted of offences involving moral turpitude are not to be retained in service. They are to be either dismissed or removed from service depending upon the conduct of the employees which led to the conviction on a criminal charge.
- (c) Action against retired employees shall be taken under the Punjab Civil Services (Volume-II, Chapter-II), All India Service (Death-cum-Retirement Benefits) rules, 1958 or any other relevant Rules.
- (d) The employees who are convicted on a criminal charge involving moral turpitude would ordinarily be awarded the penalty of dismissal and forfeiture of full pension, as the case may be, unless the punishing authority for reasons to be recorded, is of the opinion that there are some extraordinary extenuating circumstances which justify the lesser penalty of removal or the withholding of part of the pension.

5. Where an FIR is registered against a Government officer/official for an offence involving moral turpitude, the Government officer/official will be immediately transferred to a post that involves no Public dealing. In other cases, where the offence does not involve moral turpitude, the Government officer/official will not be posted/continued in the district where FIR is registered.

If a Government officer/official is convicted by the competent court but he is allowed to continue in service after imposition of punishment other than dismissal or the charges have been framed against him in a court of law for an offence involving moral turpitude, action will be immediately taken to ensure that such Government officer/official:-

- (i) does not continue to hold or is posted to any post which may involve public dealing;
- (ii) is not entrusted or assigned any investigation or disciplinary enquiry of any case, either as investigating/enquiry officer or in any supervisory capacity;
- (iii) Is not posted in the Vigilance Bureau or as Chief Vigilance Officer (CVO) in an Administrative Department.
- (iv) is not posted in the district where the criminal case involving such Government officer/official is under investigation or trial.

Pardeep Singh
Under Secretary Personnel,
